INDORE: UPCOMING Pune-based classical singer Sawani Shende enthralled the music connoisseurs of the City at a programme organised in the memory of eminent vocalist Chandrasen Rao Gawde at Jall Auditorium on Sunday.

The grandeur of her performance was greater than her age.

Verses in Raag Yaman, Shiv Ranjani and Kalawati were wonderfully voiced. The delicate balance of Taan was greatly taken care of. The singer proved that she had the mettle to be in the big league in future. She was accompanied by Pundit Mohan

Mungre on harmonium and Ullhas Rajhans on tabla.

Doordarshan Kendra director Girish Verma was the chief guest on the occasion. Earlier, Abhishek Gawde, Suresh Gawde, Vijay Gawde, Prabhakar Gwade and others welcomed the guests. Sanjay Patel conducted the programme which was well attended.
